

JEWISH FAMILY SERVICES, INC

The mission of Jewish Family Services is to provide supportive services that will strengthen families, children and individuals throughout the life cycle within the context of their unique needs and traditions. JFS offers a wide range of mental health and counseling services, social services, case management programs and safe and affordable housing to 2,500 individuals annually.

JFS is one of the longest-standing nonprofit organizations in the state of Wisconsin. Since 1867, JFS has strived to provide barrier-free access to programming that promotes dignity, independence, and stability for vulnerable populations, including individuals and families with low income, at-risk older adults, and persons with disabilities.
